

Mr. Wagner - Lesson Plans

Social Studies Department

Phone: 926 - 4631 (H.S. Office)

Email: jwagner@rockwoodschoools.org

Week of December 9, 2024 – December 13, 2024

American Government - Periods 1, 2, and 3

Monday National Security v Individual Rights

Objective: Students will examine the major question of what is more important to them – Stronger National Government that can protect the National Security or are the rights of Individuals more important.

Activities: research on Edward Snowden and NSA

Evaluation:

Enrichment:

Accommodations: assignment modification

Tuesday: National Security v Individual Rights

Objective: Students will examine the major question of what is more important to them – Stronger National Government that can protect the National Security or are the rights of Individuals more important.

Activities: research on FISA Court

Evaluation:

Enrichment:

Accommodations: assignment modification

Wednesday: National Security v Individual Rights

Objective: Students will examine the major question of what is more important to them – Stronger National Government that can protect the National Security or are the rights of Individuals more important.

Activities: research on US Cities and China surveillance capabilities

Evaluation:

Enrichment:

Accommodations: assignment modification

Thursday: DEBATE - National Security v Individual Rights

Objective: Students will examine the major question of what is more important to them – Stronger National Government that can protect the National Security or are the rights of Individuals more important.

Activities: DEBATE – National Security v Right to Privacy

Evaluation:

Enrichment:

Accommodations: assignment modification

Friday: DEBATE

Objective: Students will examine the major question of what is more important to them – Stronger National Government that can protect the National Security or are the rights of Individuals more important.

Activities: DEBATE – Edward Snowden – Traitor or Patriot?

Evaluation:

Enrichment:

Accommodations: assignment modification

World History and Cultures - Periods 5, 6 and 8

Monday: Versailles

Objective: Students will examine the building of Versailles

Activities: notes/class discussion/Versailles video Part 3

Evaluation: formative

Enrichment:

Accommodations: direction clarification, extra time when needed

Tuesday: Versailles

Objective: Students will examine the building of Versailles

Activities: notes/class discussion/Versailles video Part 4

Evaluation: formative

Enrichment:

Accommodations: direction clarification, extra time when needed

Wednesday: Versailles

Objective: Students will examine the idea of being an absolute king

Activities: notes/class discussion/King Louis XIV writing

Evaluation: p. 488 notes quiz

Enrichment:

Accommodations: extra time when needed, quiz modification

Thursday: The Enlightenment

Objective: Students will examine the Age of Enlightenment

Activities: Renee Des Cartes and skepticism

Evaluation: formative

Enrichment:

Accommodations: direction clarification, extra time when needed

Friday: Scientific Revolution

Objective: Students will examine the Age of the Scientific Revolution

Activities: notes/class discussion/Space Exploration Assignment

Evaluation: formative

Enrichment:

Accommodations: direction clarification, extra time when needed